

THE Beatrice
SUMMER 2026
READING LIST

A curated selection for long afternoons and unhurried evenings.

MAY

PYTHON'S KISS by LOUISE ERDRICH

A haunting collection of stories exploring ordinary lives disrupted by unexpected turns.

Pulitzer Prize winner for The Night Watchman.

JUNE

THE CALAMITY CLUB by KATHRYN STOCKETT

Three women in 1930s Mississippi form an unlikely alliance to reclaim their futures.

From the author of The Help.

JULY

THE THINGS WE NEVER SAY by ELIZABETH STROUT

A tender novel about loneliness, connection, and the truths left unspoken.

Pulitzer Prize winner for Olive Kitteridge.

AUGUST

LAND by MAGGIE O'FARRELL

A father and son confront hardship and buried histories in 19th-century Ireland.

From the award-winning author of Hamnet.

SEPTEMBER

REAL AMERICANS by RACHEL KHONG

A sweeping family story exploring identity, ambition, and belonging across generations.

A widely celebrated book club favorite.